About Us: Appel Farm is nonprofit arts education center, featuring a residential summer arts camp, family retreats & on-site arts integration charter school, located in the rural, farming community of Elmer, New Jersey. Est. 1960.

Our Facility: With over 115 acres, Appel Farm boasts a wide variety of both specialized and multi-purpose spaces. Our building options include four (4) summer camp bunks, one (1) private sleeping space, six (6) breakout rooms, one (1) dance studio, a 200-person dining hall, a 225-person capacity theatre and two (2) outdoor covered stages. Many of these spaces have the potential for multi-faceted use, making Appel Farm an idyllic space to host your unique event! Flexible accommodations for up to 50 overnight guests are available September 2022-June 2023. Most buildings can be reached via wheelchair-accessible paths.

Our Grounds: Across campus, guests will discover beautiful murals & sculptures installed by artists from all over the world! Outdoor amenities include: two (2) tennis courts, a basketball half court, a swimming pool (seasonal), a volleyball net, 2 Gaga pits, and paved pathways. We also have two outdoor stages, a grand Pavilion with adjacent courtyard & mini-stage, and two (2) campfire pits. Green picnic tables & handcrafted Adirondack chairs provide guests with comfortable seating throughout the grounds. A nature trail, several gardens, and lots of trees offer guests plenty of natural space in which to meet, connect, and reflect. The campus also plays host to a gorgeous field--perfect for hosting a festival, outdoor drive in meeting, theatre or dance performance!
