A Word from Appel Farm's BDEIA Committee

Appel Farm's Belonging, Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility (BDEIA) Committee would like to welcome all people to our site for a wonderful weekend of art-making activities, music, friendship, and bonding. As a place of love and joy, all are welcome to join the festivities!

We support the uniqueness of the individual and their ability to make social change within our society. Albert and Clare Appel were advocates for discussions that included all view points and perspectives. During your time here, please be sure to be respectful to others. Appel Farm is a safe place for all to share their lives while positively impacting our community through the arts. If you have any questions or need any assistance, please contact a staff member or volunteer. We would be happy to help!

A MESSAGE FROM OUR LEADERSHIP TEAM

We are so excited to welcome you to Appel Farm's 65th Anniversary Weekend! For more than six decades, Appel Farm Arts & Music Center has been a hub for the arts in South Jersey, inviting our community to discover their authentic voices and connect through creativity. Together, we've built a place where people of all ages can explore, express, and grow through the transformative power of the arts.

Sixty-five years ago, Albert and Clare Appel transformed their South Jersey chicken farm into a place where creativity could take root. What began as a small arts camp has grown into a vibrant community that inspires generations to create, connect, and grow. Through it all, our mission has remained the same: to nurture self-expression, connection, and confidence through the arts.

This weekend, we celebrate not only our history, but the community that shaped it; campers, educators, families, alumni, artists, neighbors, and supporters who make Appel Farm what it was, is, and will continue to be.

As we look to the future, we remain committed to fostering a welcoming, creative space for everyone who steps onto our 110-acre campus, honoring it as a true sanctuary for the arts in South Jersey.

Thank you for being part of this incredible legacy of arts access and belonging in New Jersey. Here's to 65 years of creativity, connection, and community, and to many more to come.

With gratitude, kindness, and hope,
The Appel Farm Executive Leadership Team

Thank You!

A special thank you to our friends Wes Bogan, Ronnie Cimprich, Gallery 50 Artists, Maria Payer, and Susan Whitehouse for all their time and effort in obtaining canvases for our 65 Canvases Art Sale. Thank you to our other partners who made this day a great success - Auburn Road Vineyard and Winery, Farmers & Bankers Brewing, Lost Elephant Brewing Company, Lucy Briggs, and Daryl Ann Craven from WXP. Thank you to Craig Getting for his leadership and support during the 65th Celebration planning.

Thank you to illustrator Greg Nemec for the 65th Anniversary design concept and artwork, and artist Stephen Cooke for the 65th Anniversary "Save the Date" design concept and artwork. Thank you to our other Program Book Contributors: Nisal Amarasinghe, Kat Baer, Dani Cooke, Ronnie Cimprich, Kristina Hill, Sam Miller, and Heather Yelle.

CONGRATULATIONS APPEL FARM ARTS & MUSIC CENTER IN CELEBRATING THEIR 65TH ANNIVERSARY!

Thank you to all the current and previous staff and board who have made Appel Farm an oasis of love and inclusion, allowing all people the opportunity to share their creativity, leading to personal growth, community and joy.

Thank You!

Thank you to the 65th Anniversary Host Committee who assisted the Appel Farm staff to coordinate the event. Their donations, efforts and time were instrumental in providing this successful weekend of activities through communicating with our alumni, partners, legislators, local businesses, artists and arts communities.

Thank you to all our board members, Susan Whitehouse and Pei Min Appel for their contributions.

HONORING ALBERT & CLARE APPEL

In the late 1950s with the purchase of the current land, Clare and Albert initially became farmers with the entire family tending over 20,000 chickens. Attending elementary school and processing eggs after school, the Appel children also practiced lessons in classical music. Each of the Appel children, Judy, Toby, Aliza and Julius have many memories of the center's origins from sixty-five years ago.

In 1960, guided by a sense of curiosity and grounded in humor and hard work, Clare and Albert Appel transitioned their 176-acre farm and its multitude of chickens into a thriving summer community focused on the raw talent and emergent curiosity of humans aged 7 to 17: Appel Farm Arts Camp was born. Starting as a day camp, across the street at the main house, camp included baking in the kitchen with Clare, putting on theatre productions in the corncrib, and creating beautiful music in the "New House" studio designed by renowned architect Frank Weise.

This amazing story is being documented through a partnership between Appel Farm Arts & Music Center, Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center at Stockton University, and the New Jersey Commission on Holocaust Education. Working with Aliza Appel (Clare and Albert Appel's daughter), the group is documenting photographs and stories of the Jewish chicken farmers in the area, including her family, for the Holocaust Survivors of South Jersey Project. If your family was part of the Jewish chicken farmers of South Jersey, please contact Michael Hayse at michael.hayse@stockton.edu.

Thank you to Aliza Appel for stories of the past, Michael Hayse, Breahna Dougherty, Irvin Moreno-Rodriguez, Kate Okeson, Brett Roach, Rebecca Rodriguez, Curtis Riggan, Tessa McKenna, Kristina Hill, and Heather Yelle for scanning photos, documenting stories and touring the site.

Polaroid Fade • 2PM

Polaroid Fade is formed out of a love for bands like The Smiths, The Sundays, and The Ocean Blue. With 19-year-old siren, Nicoletta Giuliani at the front, this new project hints back to 90's indie rock and all the fun of no frills, no glitz jangle pop.

 Stereo League

Stereo League • 2:45PM

Formed in 2016, Stereo League is driven by the songwriting of childhood friends Alex Savoth and Dan King. What began as a studio project with producer Eric Bogacz quickly grew into a dynamic collective blending soul, rock, and indie influences, delivering an ever-changing, genre-bending sound live and on their debut album A Light on Each Side.

The Tisburys • 3:30PM

Philadelphia indie rockers The Tisburys return with A STILL LIFE REVISITED, their most collaborative album yet, recorded at Dr. Dog's Mt. Slippery studio with producer Justin Nazario. The record blends the heart of 2000s indie with themes of memory, family, and finding home. Mixed by Phil Joly and mastered by Ryan Schwabe, A Still Life Revisited is out April 25 on Double Helix and SofaBurn Records.

SNACKTIME • 5:30PM

SNACKTIME started with free shows in Philadelphia's Rittenhouse Square in 2020, quickly growing from local crowds to sold-out club shows and major festivals like Life Is Beautiful, Sound on Sound, and Sea.Hear.Now. In 2025, the band dropped their summer anthem "SUNSHINE" and followed it up with the uplifting single "ENOUGH," and will tour nationwide with Fitz and The Tantrums, plus festival stops at Newport Folk, Roots Picnic, Boston Calling, XPoNential, and more.

Did you know?

Over 20 years ago, Appel Farm Arts & Music Center and Perkins Center for the Arts partnered together to build one of the very first Noborigama Kilns in South Jersey. This multi-chambered, slow process, wood fired kiln produces amazing and unique looks to pottery glazes. Check it out during our 65th Anniversary Celebration by the Art Building. Perkin's artists would love to talk with you about the process. Location is on the map.

APPEL FARM IS BUILDING

CREATIVE INCLUSIVE LEARNING SPACES

A bold, statewide train-the-trainer initiative advancing inclusivity, advocacy, and equity in arts education through Universal Design for Learning (UDL) and neurodiversity-affirming practices.

A two year initiative made possible with funding from:

Inclusive Healthy
Communities
NJ Division of Disability Services

NEW JERSEY HUMAN SERVICES

Mixed media poster created by 5th-8th grade students.

CELEBRATING 65 YEARS!

Raising $65,000

Appel Farm has a rich 65-year history that started as a summer camp and blossomed into a world-renowned arts center with arts education programming, concerts, festivals, and so much more!

You and your family have been a big part of that success, and without you, we would not be where we are today. Join us as we celebrate our history, this weekend's events, and the future stories of the next 65 years.

Ensure that we continue to grow by helping us raise $65,000 to continue our arts education mission. You can help!

- Buy a t-shirt at the Merchandise Booth!
- Purchase an 8x8 canvas at the arts show in the dining hall.
- Buy an inscribed brick for the Welcome Walk, honoring your family's time at Appel Farm (use the left QR code).
- Easily donate as you are watching the show by following the QR code on the right.
